

NORTH TORRANCE TATTLER

By MRS. HELE ALLISON
MEMO 4-2430

Hi there! Missed you all last week, but this family was enjoying the sights of Zion National Park, Utah, Bryce Canyon, and a very delightful visit with my father, Mr. Joseph Adamson and brothers Kenneth and James of Palisade, Colo. Stopped off at Durango for the Ceremonials and Rodeo — our boys heartily enjoyed the Indians. Later the Gallup for the Inter-Tribal Celebration which indeed was a treat! After camping out by the river with only a tent to lean, swimming at your leisure, huge bonfires at night (not to mention the dew) we had the first night out! It is rather difficult to get back into the swing of things, but all good things must come to an end sooner or later, so . . .

Seems this is not the only family camping out these days. The Reese Holbrooks and James Stansbury of Corral Ave. spent the weekend at Muntz Lake. Heran Cortez of the same street along with his family camped at Crystal Lake. The Thomas Fannon household spent the weekend at Mrs. Fannon's mother's cabin at Carbon Canyon.

The Evangelical United Brethren Church being held temporarily in McMaster hall with Rev. Zeller officiating, held its first Sunday school session this past Sunday with Jack White as superintendent. A large group attended, but more are expected as the Sundays go by. Keep this place and time in mind: McMaster hall, Sunday 9:30 a. m. All are cordially invited to attend. Another step forward in line with this affiliation was the organization of the ladies group, to be known as Alpha Ladies Society. It got under way with the selecting of officers to guide the group through the year. Those elected to serve were: president, Mrs. Ann Collins; vice president, Mrs. Myrtle Dyer; treasurer, Mrs. Betty Johnson; publicity, Mrs. Emmy White. Those attending pledging their support were Mesdames Allee MacKenzie, Lorraine Zeller, Juanita Alford, Ruth Brooks, Phyllis Considine and Barbara Flynn. The first project is a pie sale to be held Saturday, Aug. 16, at Manor Market. Delicious pies, cakes and homemade candies will go on sale.

Just this reminder, that the September meeting of the NTCLA will be the election of new officers. Everyone is being urged to come out and support his candidate. A dance is being held Saturday, Aug. 16, with the Music Masters holding sway. According to Clint Beeden, who is assisting Collins as ways and means chairman, various awards will be made. Those attending the last dance all reported a very good time. Come on out, meet your neighbor at the North Torrance Civic Improvement Association big monthly get-together!

I certainly was scooped on this story, as little Judy Engels sped up and down the street like the town crier telling everyone about the little brother who arrived Monday at 11 o'clock. He was promptly named Mark Twain Thornton. The Ernie Thorntons reside in Wilkie Ave. and have another son, Ricky. Congratulations.

Mrs. Louise Rose was the recipient of a very lovely stork shower this past Wednesday, given at the home of Mrs. Marjorie Cuntery, 17039 Elgar. Marjorie was assisted by Mrs. Jo Whillis and Mrs. Alice Reagan. Many nice gifts were given to Louise by the friends in the neighborhood.

Mrs. Mickey Gowin, Etta Rosenberg, and Carolyn Fair gave a very fast-moving party for little Kathleen Henning, 18344 Regina, in honor of her sixth birthday. It was a backyard party with all the trimmings! Balloons, hats, nut cups and bubble gum were given to 19 guests. Three very pretty cakes appeared, and the boys and girls proudly posed for pictures. The youngest guest, Bobbie Chriss, 2 years old, walked away with the prize for putting the most pins in the bottle.

The Mothers Club of the Cub Scouts is planning an old-time ice cream social to be held at the September Pack meeting at McMaster hall. According to ways and means chairman Peggy Sale, a very generous helping of homemade ice cream and cookies will sell for 25 cents. Parents of Cubs are invited to bring the brothers and sisters and enjoy this function Sept. 12.

Many birthdays celebrated under various circumstances. Little Mark Holechek celebrated his third birthday at the Orthopedic Hospital, where he is undergoing treatment for polio. Many friends and neighbors sent him gifts and best wishes for a very speedy recovery. Eddie VonBehren celebrated his 20th birthday with a discharge from the Air Corps. Norman Hale had a group of friends in to honor the occasion. The Loren Mackes, Russell Holecheks, Raymond Adamson and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Allison of Los Angeles gathered around the fireplace to sing happy birthday to J. R. Allison at the home of the Alex Bates, 17039 Glenburn Ave. The patio rang with laughter until the last piece of cake was eaten.

If it is inconvenient for you to call me, won't you drop a card to 17038 Glenburn and let me know what goes on at your home or club? I would be most happy to use it in this column.
